

Quick Facts about John

- John refers to himself in the book as “the disciple whom Jesus loved.”
- John was the only disciple who did not die a martyr's death
- He wrote The Gospel of John at the end of life. It is the last of the four gospels to be written and more than likely he had read Matthew, Mark, and Luke...
- John's Gospel is the most theological of the four and he uses imagery a lot like calling Jesus the light of world, the bread of life, the door, the vine, etc. There are also the seven “I AM” statements from Jesus
- John takes 6 chapters to cover the scene between Jesus and His disciples the night before His crucifixion as they celebrated Passover, which we now celebrate as Communion

Quick Facts about James

- He was the brother of Jesus. He did not believe in Jesus divinity until after Jesus resurrected and ascended into Heaven.
- He was one of the first leaders in the early church.
- Many scholars believe James was the first book written chronologically speaking in the New Testament
- Some scholars believe that James is a commentary on the Sermon on the Mount from Matthew 5.
- James was one of the first Christian martyrs when the persecution of the church began.

Quick Facts about 1st and 2nd Peter

- Both are written by Peter towards the end of his life
- Peter references Paul's letters in his letters and refers to them as equal with Old Testament scripture.
- Context of these letters: In the 64 AD a great fire destroyed much of Rome. It was widely believed that the Emperor Nero was responsible for the fire. However, he blamed the Christians for it and this began their persecution. Peter writes this letter to offer hope in the midst of suffering.
- Soon after he wrote these letters, Peter was crucified upside down.
